

Deliverer Deliveries

We all love to get mail and packages, but how often do we thank those people who bring us those items?

First: As a family, create thank you cards for your delivery person. These can be handmade or done using a computer.

Second: Find a basket or gift bag, and put your cards in it as well as some snacks. Think of the weather, too. If it's hot out, they may appreciate bottled water and fruit. If it's cold, maybe a gift card for a coffee place.

Third: Put your gift basket somewhere on your porch where your delivery people will see it and know it's for them.

Fourth: Be sure to check with the company of your delivery person--some have limits as to what their employees may accept as gifts!
