

Do Something

President John F. Kennedy once said, "Ask not what your country can do for you; ask what you can do for your country." So, what can you do? Something. Anything!

First: The organization, Do Something (dosomething.org), is an international organization dedicated to helping engage young people. So, go on their website and see if there is a cause or mission that interests you. Then, peruse its resources to see how you can be active!

Second: Maybe there's already a cause that is important to you. Research your community to see if there is a local organization that works on that cause, then reach out and see if you can volunteer somehow.

Third: If you want to inspire others, talk to a teacher and administrator to see if you can maybe start a club at school dedicated to your interest.
