

Stadium Clean Up

If your school has sports events, custodians have to work extra hours to clean up. Show these hard workers some kindness by lending them a helping hand!

Step One: Get a group of friends together who are willing to help out after a big event.

Step Two: Reach out to your school administration, telling them why you want to volunteer and asking them what you need to do to make it happen.

Step Three: Make sure you have guardian approval!

Step Four: Show up and help the custodial crew have a quicker, easier clean up! Be sure to thank them for everything they do!

Take it a step further: Make a schedule to try to help after every event!
